A review and discussion of the July 05, regular meeting agenda items took place.

Meeting was called to order at 6:00

1. Boat launch status and boat tie-up was discussed. The project is complete. Bill Rush noted that boaters may need to exercise caution and use bumpers to further protect their water craft.
2. Lilypad control discussed. Pontoon has been serviced and is ready for operation. The cost was $600.00 and we thank Jay Bates for his services in getting the pontoon ready for maintenance operations on the lake.
3. Grant package has been submitted. Items requested include police radio's, vehicles, lights, security measures.
4. Resolution HL 22-04 for the Regional Hazard Mitigation Plan was discussed. Tim Moore explained that this will be important in the event of another FEMA emergency. It will be submitted to Don Roybal, EMA after approval. Tim also mentioned we are expecting an additional $15,038.90 from FEMA in the near future. This is due to changes in the earlier amounts approved at 84%. They increased the percentage to 90.4%.

Respectfully submitted:
